

Piedmont-Roswell-Habersham Scoping Study

About the Project

With the Piedmont Area Transportation Study having identified the need to improve the area around Piedmont Road, Roswell Road and Habersham Road, the Buckhead CID launched a study that will recommend intersection changes to improve travel times through the area while also enhancing the multi-modal transportation options.

Project Status

Buckhead CID, in partnership with City of Atlanta and the surrounding neighborhoods, are currently in a stage of sharing data, resources and collaboration to move the components of this project forward.

2017

---

Buckhead CID is successful in securing City of Atlanta Renew Infrastructure Program funding to complete the study.

2018
